

Orthotics and Prosthetics: Frequency Limits for Prosthetics

Page updated: November 2022

This section contains a list of frequency limits for purchased prosthetic appliances. These frequency restrictions are applied to any provider billing the procedure code within the designated time frame(s). «For code descriptions, refer to a HCPCS code book or the Orthotic and Prosthetic Appliances: Billing Codes – Prosthetics section of this manual.»

These frequency limits can be overridden with evidence of medical necessity as shown by an approved Treatment Authorization Request (TAR).

Note: Per California Code of Regulations, Title 22, Section 51321(g): Authorization for durable medical equipment shall be limited to the lowest cost item that meets the patient's medical needs.

Codes that are not listed in this section do not have a defined frequency limit and always require authorization.
