
Distinct-Part Long Term Care Facilities

Page updated: August 2020

This section is to assist outpatient hospitals that render services for long term care patients.

Distinct-Part Hospital LTC Billing for Lab and X-Ray Services

Laboratory and X-ray services rendered to distinct-part hospital Long Term Care (LTC) patients by an outpatient hospital are billed by the outpatient hospital with facility type code 13. The LTC facility rate excludes laboratory, X-ray and allied health services.

Note: Laboratory, X-ray and allied health services rendered to subacute patients in distinct-part hospital LTC facilities are included in the subacute rate. Laboratory and X-ray services not included in the subacute rate are subject to the above policy.
